

Mail to:

Medical Officer of Health
169 Pine Street South
Timmins, ON P4N 8B7
Ph: 705-267-1181
Toll Free: 1-800-461-1818
Confidential Fax: 705-360-7324

REPORTABLE COMMUNICABLE DISEASE NOTIFICATION FORM

DISEASE:		Reporting Agency:
Lab test type:		Collection date:
Mantoux Positive
Date administered:	Date read:	Result:	(mm of induration)
Client Information
Surname:		Given name:	DOB:
Address:		City:	Postal code:
Sex: M / F	Phone #1:	Phone #2:	Employer:
Physician:			Phone:
Other Physician:			Phone:
Clinical Information
Outpatient/ER/Clinic visit <input type="checkbox"/>		HOSPITALIZED <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
Date of visit: ___/___/___		Date of Admission: ___/___/___ Date of Discharge: ___/___/___
Clinical symptoms & date of symptoms onset :
Meds:		Date:	Meds:
Meds:		Date:	Meds:
Meds:		Date:	Meds:
Meds:		Date:	Meds:

REPORTED BY: _____ DATE: ___ / ___ / ___

FOR HEALTH UNIT USE ONLY

Notification received by: _____ Porcupine Health Unit Staff
Name / Title

Medical Officer of Health notified by: T.C. [] FAX [] Date: ___ / ___ / ___

Diseases of Public Health Significance

Timely reporting of communicable diseases is mandated and essential for their control. As per Ontario Regulation 135/18 and amendments under the Health Protection and Promotion Act, R.S.O. 1990 c.H.7, if you suspect or have confirmation of the following specified diseases or their etiologic agent, please report them to the local Medical Officer of Health or designate.

Diseases marked with a ► and in bold should be reported IMMEDIATELY by telephone to the Medical Officer of Health. All other diseases are to be reported the next working day.

Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS)	► Gastroenteritis outbreaks in institutions and public hospitals	Ophthalmia neonatorum
Acute flaccid paralysis (AFP)	Giardiasis, except asymptomatic cases	Paralytic shellfish poisoning (PSP)
Amebiasis	Gonorrhoea	Paratyphoid Fever
► Anthrax	► Group A Streptococcal disease, invasive	Pertussis (Whooping Cough)
Blastomycosis	Group B Streptococcal disease, neonatal	► Plague
► Botulism	► Haemophilus influenzae disease, invasive, all types	Pneumococcal disease, invasive
► Brucellosis	► Hantavirus pulmonary syndrome	► Poliomyelitis, acute
Campylobacter enteritis	► Hemorrhagic fevers, including:	Psittacosis/Ornithosis
Carbapenamase-producing Enterobacteriaceae (CPE)	1. Ebola virus disease	► Q Fever
Chancroid	2. Marburg virus disease	► Rabies
Chickenpox (Varicella)	3. Lassa Fever	► Respiratory infection outbreaks in institutions and public hospitals
Chlamydia trachomatis infections	4. Other viral causes	Rubella
Cholera	► Hepatitis, viral:	Rubella, congenital syndrome
Clostridium difficile -associated disease (CDAD) outbreaks in public hospitals	1. Hepatitis A	Salmonellosis
► Creutzfeldt-Jakob Disease, all types	2. Hepatitis B	► Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome (SARS)
Cryptosporidiosis	3. Hepatitis C	Shigellosis
Cyclosporiasis	Influenza	► Smallpox
► Diphtheria	Legionellosis	Syphilis
Echinococcus multilocularis	Leprosy	Tetanus
Encephalitis, including:	Listeriosis	Trichinosis
1. Primary, viral	Lyme disease	Tuberculosis
2. Post-infectious	► Measles	Tularemia
3. Vaccine-related	Meningitis, acute	Typhoid Fever
4. Subacute sclerosing panencephalitis	1. bacterial	Verotoxin-producing E. coli infection indicator conditions including, Haemolytic Uraemic Syndrome (HUS)
5. Unspecified	2. viral	West Nile Virus Illness
Food poisoning, all causes	3. other	Yersiniosis
	► Meningococcal disease, invasive
	Mumps

To report a disease or for more information, contact the Porcupine Health Unit's Infectious Diseases Team at:

- 705-267-1181 or 1-800-461-1818
- Confidential fax at 705-360-7324.